Rain Swells River, Streams; Damages To Property Great

The 10.23 inches of rain which fell in this area during the past week brought about the most disastrous flood condition in the memory of the old timers and property losses were being tabulated in the thousands of dollars locally and in millions throughout the state and in Reno.

During Monday and Tuesday, 3.17 inches were recorded by the U. S. Forest Service here, with 2.90 inches in a 24-hour period ending Tuesday morning. The precipitation is nearly 15 inches over normal for this time of the year with a total of 17.60 inches.

The Truckee River, fed by scores of feeder streams, went on a wild rampage and caused heavy damage from Tahoe to Reno, when bridges, small buildings, roads and fences were swept away in the roaring flood.

The situation yesterday was summarized as follows:

Highways

All roads leading out of Truckee were closed. More than 300 feet of Highway 40 at Mystic was inundated and washed away. It will be necessary to wait until the water recedes before repair can be started. In the meantime, division of highway crews under the foremanship of Robert Luck were attempting to repair a washed out bridge on the Little Truckee River to divert traffic east by way of Sierraville and Loyalton.

A huge section of Highway 40 where the Frog Lake trail meets it a mile above Donner Lake was torn out and a number of other spots along the grade were severely damaged by the torrential streams rushing into Donner.

Farther west, four feet of water stood on the road at Cisco and in a number of other places on the summit water rushing over the road stopped vehicles.

Highway 89 to Tahoe City was closed a mile west of here when the approaches to the Donner Creek bridge gave way. Constable and Mrs. N. F. Dolley were out surveying the damage and were crossing the bridge just as the abutment gave way permitting an 8 foot crevice to develop. Fortunately, they escaped injury.

At Big Chief

Streams crossing the highway at Big Chief created a constant hazard and considerable damage was caused at the resort owned by C. A. Tollefson. The vehicle bridge over the river there washed away and cabins were shifted on their foundations and some were ruined.

Four small cottages built during the past year by Tollefson just west of Truckee along the river were inundated and the local man estimated his loss will run well over $10,000.

Through Truckee

While the rampaging river stayed well within its banks through Truckee, a number of fences and small buildings along the stream were washed away and some trees were uprooted. Eugene Ilardi and A. R. Ghirard were among those losing fences, clothes lines, etc.

The Truckee Public Utility District's supplemental water line over the river was washed away and the pump house flooded. Bridges were not damaged here.

County Road

Supervisor H. G. Loehr said considerable damage was done to roads and bridges throughout his district and a survey of the damage was being made today.

Southern Pacific

Washouts and slides along the Southern Pacific held up all traffic. At Andover, a slide covered both tracks Monday afternoon and the eastbound Overland, City of San Francisco, the Gold Coast and Local No. 26 were held up at Norden all night Monday. A washout at Floriston prevented the trains from moving either direction until Tuesday morning when large crews of men were sent out to repair the damage. Trains started moving slowly over single tracks and with manual controlled blocks at 9:30 on Tuesday morning, R. P. Bick reported.

Between Mystic and Verdi it was necessary to build a detour track to avoid wash outs.

Power Company Losses

F. W. Gaiennie, manager for the Sierra Pacific Power Company here, said the company's power houses along the Truckee River were at a virtual standstill after Monday morning. Where they were not flooded, the silt and debris clogged the turbines and prevented them from being useful. Sierra Pacific crews battled to prevent bridges from going out along the river and kept constant watch on the various lakes and reservoirs.

Gaiennie reported the station at Farad was abandoned Monday night when water flooded the plant. Other plants suffered considerable damage, he said.

Lakes and Reservoirs

Donner Lake was at flood stage. Water poured over the bridge across the dam at a rapid rate, with all three gates wide open. Eighteen inches of water stood about Donner Lake Lodge and the basement was flooded there. Donner meadow was a sheet of water.

Both Tahoe and Independence, Gaiennie said, were not near the top but at Boca a constant opening of the gates was necessary Monday night as the huge reservoir threatened to overflood.

Bridge Out

The 18-ton bridge over the Truckee at Floriston was washed out Saturday.

Local schools were closed at noon Monday so children could return home ahead of the potential flood damage.

Reno Damaged

Four feet of water stood in the lobbies of the Mapes and Riverside hotels in Reno as national guardsmen and volunteers placed sandbags along the rampaging Truckee. Water went up Virginia Street to the Arcade Building and many homes along the river were flooded, including that of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Cozzalio, former Truckee people. Basements were flooded and all bridges in Reno were closed to traffic. All roads out of that city were also closed.

Bridge Washout Leaves Floriston Without Egress

by C. A. FELESINA

FLORISTON— What 's a major catastrophe for Floriston occurred Saturday evening when the bridge over the Truckee River, which was the only means of cars entering or leaving Floriston, was washed away by the raging waters.

Over half of the cars belonging in Floriston were trapped as the washout occurred about 6:15 or 6:30, just after most folks had reached home.

Mrs. Byron Miller was returning from work and had stopped to see how it was. It looked safe so she started to cross. Just as her front bumper reached the span, the ground gave way beneath the car but fortunately the bumper caught on the bridge, holding the car until a wrecker from Truckee could reach here and pull it out.

Meanwhile, the water, which was a powerful back eddy, kept washing away at the approach to the bridge and by the time the wrecker arrived it was all washed out under the front end of the car. Had they been 15 minutes later in getting there the car would have been lost in the river.

Much credit must be given to Thornton's Garage in answering the call so promptly. Meanwhile, after the water had washed the approach away there was hope for a while that the pressure on the bridge would be relieved enough so that it would hold but due to many logs being washed down, it finally had to give and at 11:30 p.m. it was washed away. It lodged a quarter of a mile downstream at the power company dam where the footbridge above the dam caught and held it.

It leaves many residents with no means of getting to work and also Mrs. Savage, who runs the grocery store, is without means of bringing in supplies as their car was also on the Floriston side when it happened.

Even more serious is the fact that there is no way for the fuel companies to bring in fuel. Since the county road from Hirschdale to Floriston has not been kept in passable condition, it is hoped the county will help to replace the bridge.

Youth Groups Meetings Cancelled by Weather

The meetings of the Brownies, Cub Scouts Den No. 2 and the Girl Scouts scheduled for this week have been postponed due to weather conditions, Mrs. Frank Giovannoni announced Tuesday.

Taxpayers Meet Sanitary Board In Quiz Session

Questions on Budget Are Deferred by Board Officers

Many questions were answered and many were left unanswered as a group of taxpayers met last Thursday night with officials of the Truckee Sanitary District to inquire into the current high rate of taxes in the district. The meeting, held at Donner Lake Lodge, was sponsored by the Truckee Chamber of Commerce.

Reg Smart, chamber president, turned the meeting over to H. H. Hodson, chairman of the sanitary board, who spoke briefly before introducing Fred O. Morris, secretary of the board, who proceeded to explain the work done and still required on the local sewage disposal plant.

Morris stated that the plant had not been functioning properly for 22 years but the current board had, by work done and projected, satisfied demands of the state board of health and water pollution authorities that the flow of sewage into the Truckee River be stopped. Morris said that no raw sewage is going from the Truckee Sanitary District into the river.

The board secretary declared the directors considered the advisability of paying for current projects by a bond issue or by current taxation. He said that the board felt it was actually saving money by avoiding a bond issue. The last bond issue, floated 25 years ago for $20,000, has cost $15,000 in interest, he said he and C. A. Tollefson calculated. With "approximately $35,000" needed for proposed work, the board felt they would save the interest over a 40 year period by levying a pay-as-you-go tax over the next few years. Because of this policy, the members of the board said the current tax rate could be contemplated for "the next few years" with nominal decreases annually thereafter.

In reply to questioning on what money is budgeted for expenditure this fiscal year, the board members said they had not come prepared to answer queries as to the actual sums involved in the current budget. They stated a copy of the budget was on hand in the office of the district and that anyone wishing to see it could contact the secretary by telephoning Truckee 25 or by attending a regular meeting of the sanitary board.

Those present were informed that the sanitary board meets once each month on the second Thursday at the Truckee fire house and the public may attend.

During the evening, the matter of district equipment expense was discussed extensively as were legal fees and salaries. However, in the absence of actual or estimated budget figures, no conclusion could be drawn on these topics. Approximately 50 persons attended the session, despite its distance from the boundaries of the district and a driving rain storm.

R. H. COWHARD DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER HERE

Richard Henry Cowhard, 77, father of Mrs. Jewel Dumas of Truckee, died at the home of his daughter here Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. He had been in ill health for some time and his death was not unexpected.

Cowhard, a native of Kansas, was born September 3, 1873. He was a retired olive factory superintendent and had resided in Riverside for many years, coming here three weeks ago.

Two other daughters survive.

Funeral arrangements are pending with the Truckee Colonial Mortuary.

State Authority Studies Plan for Airport at Tahoe

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— The California aeronautics commission this week announced it is preparing a detailed analysis of possible airports sites in the Lake Tahoe area.

The United States forest service has recently opened negotiations to purchase a large tract of land on the southwest shore of Lake Tahoe. The purchase will include beach frontage along both Fallen Leaf and Tahoe lakes and contains some of the finest sand beach areas in the entire region.

Aeronautics commission staff personnel, after consulting with El Dorado County and U.S. forest service officials are preparing the analysis and will present a statement as to the desirability of a well developed landing facility in this area.

The area designated most desirable by the commission staff engineers lies east of Camp Richardson, within easy walking distance of overnight cabins, public camp grounds and commercial establishments.

The proposed runway would lie in a north-south direction and have a zero take-off slope extending directly out over Lake Tahoe. The north end of the landing area suggested lies within 100 feet of the edge of the lake and extends southward for 5,000 feet.

"Such a facility," states the commission's report, "would enable all but the largest aircraft to use with complete freedom the tremendous recreational facilities offered in this area."

"It would undoubtedly become one of the most popular airports of this class ever established in the United States."

USED CLOTHES BEING SOUGHT BY RED CROSS

Beginning next Monday and continuing through Saturday, the Truckee Boy Scouts will collect used but clean outer garments and shoes, which will be turned over to the Home Service Section of the Red Cross for possible local use, Mrs. Fosten Wilson, head of the section, said.

Mrs. Robert Edwards has arranged for a storage place for the clothing and Rev. A. A. Carmitchel and Father Patrick O'Niell, on the home service committee, will assist in placing the clothing where it is needed. All surplus will be shipped to Korea by Father O'Niell, Mrs. Wilson said.

Anyone having clean clothing suitable for use is asked to contact one of the above persons and the Scouts will call for them.

ROAD CONDITION REPORT IS GIVEN FOR THIS AREA

Late Wednesday all roads leading out of Truckee, except Highway 40 west, were in bad condition and all but the Brockway cutoff were closed. The Brockway road was passable but only for light vehicles.

The division of highways reported it may be two or three days before the break at Mystic will be repaired to permit traffic over Highway 40 into Reno. Crews are working night and day to repair the damage.

In the meantime, efforts are being made to repair damage on State Route 89 to Sierraville so traffic can be routed east through there, perhaps Wednesday night. Between 40 and 50 trucks are stranded here awaiting a means of continuing eastward. The only possible route Wednesday to Reno by road was over Spooner Summit to Carson and Virginia City and north to Reno, the division reported.

Highway 89 to Tahoe City was impassable and crews are waiting for flood waters to recede before they can make repairs.

Patrolmen Here—

State Patrolmen Glenn Smart and V. J. Farewell of El Dorado County are temporarily stationed here with the Truckee squad.

Visits Here—

Mrs. Bertha Olson of Seattle has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fosten Wilson.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

Often in this troubled world we may become bitter over occurrences both at home and abroad, but if we look closely we will find many, many things for which we can and should offer thanks. Despite the war threats, the unsettled domestic problems, high taxes and political unrest, we are still living in the best country, under the best form of government and with better economic conditions than any other nation in the world. We have privileges and opportunities which others have given up hoping for and we hope that on this Thanksgiving Day the dark thoughts and dire predictions will be put aside as we all join in a true thanksgiving.

The storms this week were unusually severe and caused discomfort and concern as well as considerable incovenience and damage, but the most impressive part of the whole story was the way in which men battled to minimize the loss and maintain services. In swirling water and doubtful footing and against terrific odds, crews on the railroad, highways and utilities kept on the job for long hours, drenched to the skin and often in dangerous places so that services could continue. They both won and lost but for the most part handled the situation well and are deserving of a lot of credit.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— Governor Earl Warren's Thanksgiving Proclamation was issued this week, fixing the national holiday for observance in California. The proclamation said:

"Thanksgiving Day traditionally is an occasion for us to give thanks for the many blessings we enjoy as Americans and to renew our faith in the spiritual principles that have guided our nation to its present position of greatness.

"Just as the Pilgrim fathers gave thanks to Almighty God for the bounty of their first harvest, let us thank Him for the vast production of our farms and our industrial plants. For the Pilgrims, the Thanksgiving observance marked the end of a terrible period of hunger and privation. Although they still faced the dangers of an unknown wilderness, they gave thanks for the progress they had been able to make. For us, Thanksgiving should be a reminder of the suffering they endured and the kind of courage possessed by those who built our country.

"Our enjoyment of the pleasures of Thanksgiving is tempered by our consciousness of the sacrifices our service men are making on the battlefield of Korea and the casualties which have saddened so many of our homes. As we give thanks to Him for the blessings that have come to us, let us pray for an early and successful conclusion of the United Nations effort in Korea. Let us ask his aid as we strive with other freedom-loving peoples to bring lasting peace to a troubled world."

Buell, Stallard Emerge Alive From Landslide

T. T. Buell, superintendent for the division of highways here, and Roy Stallard, Truckee California highway patrolman, are recuperating from injuries suffered Saturday morning when they were buried by a landslide on Highway 20, a mile and a half west of its intersection with Highway 40.

Both men suffered bruises, lacerations and shock when the car in which they were sitting was hurled more than 200 feet down the mountainside by the slide. Stallard was taken to a Colfax doctor but after treatment was released to return home. Buell was brought to Truckee where his injuries were described by Dr. L. D. Nelson as not serious.

Buell was supervising the removal of a previous earth slide that had blocked the road when Stallard, en route to Nevada City, came upon the scene. While waiting, he got out of his car temporarily and was sitting with Buell in the latter's car.

Suddenly the earth above them gave way, sending the car over the bank, burying it in wet earth and demolishing the machine. The Stallard car was also badly wrecked by the slide.

The Truckee ambulance, manned by Erving Waters, was called and arrived at the scene but en route home was caught in the four feet of water over the highway at Cisco and had to be carried out by Thornton's big tow truck.

Mrs. Kearney, Local Pioneer, Laid To Rest

Was Beloved Citizen Of Truckee For Over 50 Years

Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Kearney, 73, a pioneer resident of Truckee and one of its most beloved citizens, died at Mercy Hospital in Sacramento Saturday morning following a protracted illness.

Requiem High Mass was held at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament in Sacramento Tuesday morning with Father Patrick O'Niell of the Truckee Catholic Church officiating. Rosary was held Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Interment was at St. Mary's Lawn.

Mrs. Kearney had been in ill health for several months and was removed to the hospital over two weeks ago.

She was the wife of Frank F. Kearney, whose success in raising chickens in Truckee has earned him a wide reputation throughout the state. Much of this success was due to the efforts of Mrs. Kearney who worked side by side with her husband.

A native of Vermont, Mrs. Kearney came to Truckee as a young girl, a member of the pioneer Finnegan family. She attended the local schools and later taught here. The Kearneys observed their 50th wedding anniversary at an open house here several weeks ago.

Surviving beside her husband are the following children: Laurence C. and Elihu J. Kearney of Roseville; Charles F. Kearney of Davis; Phillip S. Kearney and Mrs. Bertha L. Gates of San Francisco; Mrs. Margaret Thomas Pahlka of Auburn and Frank J. Kearney of Sacramento. Howard Henderix, a private in the army at Fort Bliss, Texas, who flew home to visit with the deceased, was a grandson but had lived all his life with the Kearneys . She was the sister of George and Carroll Finnegan of San Francisco; Mrs. Katherine Kaler, Mrs. Ruth Wallace and Leo Finnegan, all of Sacramento. There are 20 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The entire community will join in extending sympathy to the surviving members of the family.

PHIPPS AND SONS NEARLY PLUNGE INTO TORRENT

Barney Phipps and two of his sons experienced a narrow escape Tuesday afternoon when they were surveying the flood damage. They were cruising along Highway 89 just west of Truckee, looking over Donner meadow and the driver failed to notice that the approach to the Donner Creek bridge was washed away.

The front of the car went over the lip of the cut and stopped, with the vehicle teetering over the brink of the deep cut filled with muddy water pouring toward the Truckee River. The children and Phipps escaped from the car and a Gateway Garage tow truck pulled the vehicle back on the road with little damage done. Phipps had evidently failed to notice a warning sign that the road was closed.

Hocker-Calkins Rite Revealed This Week

Their many friends here will be surprised to learn of the marriage of Miss Marjorie Hocker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Hocker of Truckee, to Leon Calkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Calkins, former local residents, which took place several months ago but which has been kept secret even from their parents.

Both attended the Truckee high school and have many friends who will join in extending best wishes.

North Tahoe

by T. BURROUGHS

Rain! Rain! Rain! with reports of untold damage to property, livestock losses, families made homeless in the lower sections. There can be little comfort in the fact that bitter cold was not our lot instead of this warm rain that has washed away our snows, bringing disaster to so many.

Ace Abbott, after these nights of constant watching, is sure that the North Tahoe Public Utility District can be assured that its pumping system will be equal to any demand made upon it. Ace got four hours sleep last Sunday night, which was the most rest he had had for three nights. You people of the distrnct can be assured that your manager is equally as reliable as the system itself.

A report from our road commissioner is that a bridge at Dutch Flat on Bear River went out last Sunday night, taking 150 feet of highway. Wilma and Byron Abbott went to Carson City Saturday and found that a section of the new highway between Carson and Minden had dropped considerably, making room for a river of water, blocking all traffic. Saturday night traffic to Tahoe City was rerouted over the Brockway cut-off due to waters across the highway at Big Chief. We could go on and on in this vein, but why?

Your Christmas seals will be in the mails next week. Don't forget to pay for them. There are those in this community who will not forget this year after having had the convenience of availability of the mobile unit for chest x-rays.

Camy Althof is at nome and doing nicely. Bill brought her back from a Reno hospital last Saturday morning.

The North Tahoe Women's Club will hold its next meeting Thursday night, Nov. 30, at the Kings Beach school. Many subjects of interest will be presented and the Girl Scouts will entertain. They have a nice program all worked out that promises to be very good. There will be a demonstration of Fratex plastic goods and refreshments will, of course, be served.

Billy Hall was accidently shot through the fleshy part of his left shoulder while handling a pistol at his home last Thursday evening. The injury is not considered too serious.

Charles Chubb, principal of the Kings Beach School, will spend the holidays in San Francisco. Walter Hapgood will go down with Chubb to spend Thanksgiving with his parents at Palo Alto.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paoli of Applegate will spend Thanksgiving with the A. E. Abbotts if the rains let up enough so that Frank can get away.

The P. R. Murrays of Tahoe Vista are located at Merced for the winter.

Lake Raises .72 of Foot In Week's Storm

The 13½ inches of snow which had fallen to date was all washed away by the continued torrential rains. High and low temperatures for the week were: Nov. 13: 37, 30; 14th: 34, 25; 15th: 35, 23; 16th: 39, 27; 17th: 43, 32; 17th, 45, 35; 18th, 50, 40; 19th, low 40.

Summit Scene

by FRAN COUILLARD

We sit smugly atop our hill while the water runs both ways from this high watershed and are darned glad to perch so high. True, the water that heights command is swirling around in our various basements as it runs in one door and out the other on its was down. The mud that once made our front yard a no-man's-land has been washed away and we gaze on native granite and wonder how far is down. The water gurgles and chortles and makes for the river, the gully and the ditch to add its inches to the valley floods.

The school kids sit home for the water has strangled the furnace at the school. Milt and Helen Hogle, who moved up the hill to occupy the Oscar Beach home for the winter, journey back and forth to their Rainbow home and raise their furniture higher and higher and the water laps at their door sill. Their beautiful summer home is on the banks of the "peaceful" Yuba. Their neighbor, Walter Jansen, started out with three feet of Yuba holdings in his cabin. With its receding Saturday night, Milt and Virg Misener shoveled out what was left of the debris and awaited sunny days to complete the drying out. However, the river decided to make another invasion and the Jansen home is again a swimming pool. Bert Bacon and Bill Carrico from Cisco just left here after running the river that is the highway below Crampton's.

We were induced by Parley Merrill to take a drive down to the edge of the ocean. Our first "to the floorboards" was at Kingvale Park. We noted the river lapping the highway on that beautiful curve of water just below the Kingvale store and our gaze could not find the far bank. Danger signs and red flares guided us to the high waters in front of Crampton's Lodge where we made our turnaround. The fence that hems in Hampshire Rocks camp ground was completely covered and the portion ahead of us that should have been highway was a part of the river. Tables and camping equipment had already been loosened by the Yuba and as we watched, she tossed them about like a crazy juggler and bore them away on her growling crest. Furnaces in various hostelry basements lost their battles with the floods and shivering patrons stood with their backs to blazing fireplaces.

Say the old timers, 1937 was worse but in our ten year sojourn on the mountain, we haven't seen anything to compare with it.

Ironically, the heavy snows of the mid-week last brought forth a deluge of telephone requests from ski bunnies who can't wait, and lodge operators rubbed their hands gleefully as they made the prediction, "Looks like an early winter and long ski season."

The water, altho waist deep, didn't keep scheduled parties from going on as usual. The highlighted one was the surprise party for Day Tschopp and Bill Rutherford, whose birthdates are the same. Betty and Bud Horak, Evelyn Engle and Gordon Leathers, Don Smith, Elmo Moriano and Jean Carter, Peg Travis, Goldie and Ralph Rowton (whose wedding anniversary it was as well), Tony and Eve Donadio, Eve Tackett, Chuck Reynolds, Roy King and ourselves, beside the surprisees, comprised the "good time was had by all" bunch.

Bud and Barb Zorich spend the Thanksgiving holiday with her folks in Plymouth. Whilst they await the roya' bird, Bud was supposed to go bass fishing. Suppose the heavy, swollen rivers discouraged this last.

Donner Ski Ranch goes to town this season with new operators, Jack Woodard and Tom Malta from Los Angeles. Milt Avila will have charge of the ski hill operations, which takes in another 60 acres of improved land for the ski run. We are pleased to hear that Edvi Aro will be ski school director which means his recent injury will not incapacitate him. Around $15,000 has been poured into this mountain top ski ranch this past summer. A good portion of this went into increasing the black top area for parking.

Sugar Bowl adds a slalom tow to its operations this year and Louise Hooley says that the interior decorating job is about completed.

Hear that Jack Walsh Jr. has labored mightily all summer on the Auburn Ski Club properties and that the amount of money spent improving this oldest of clubs puts it right in there with best of 'em.

More chairs added to the Soda Springs Ski Corporation double chair lift will increase its capacity by twice and with Wanda and Virg Misener running the Snow Flake again this year, with Bud Zorich ski school director and Ed Coppel head instructor and Milt Hogle, the hill's favorite disc jockey, behind the mike, think the corporation is all set.

Maria and Jack Patten have doubled their capacity by having two lodges on the Castle Creek site. In spite of the fact that they spent a goodly portion of the summer spearing fish and going native in Baja California, they worked unceasingly since their return and their labors have reaped them an "annex" that will be ready for occupancy this winter.

Jack Schultz takes over Kingvale Park Lodge in the name of a ski club whose title we have forgotten. Harold and Gloria Steen of the Snowtel are vacationing in Mississippi before they tie themselves up for the winter. Ernie Tchopp's new garage is ready to go into the chain business at least for this winter. Mrs. Pearl Davis of the Christmas Inn is ready to start with her winter business.

SODA SPRINGS— A completely new and certified staff will be available this year at the Soda Springs Ski area under the direction of George Zorich to serve ski enthusiasts. Eddy Coppel of Soda Springs, known for his patience and perserverance as well as his excellent teaching ability, and Phil Sullivan of Berkeley, formerly of Donner Ski Ranch and an ace teacher, will comprise the staff, with two additional instructors on weekends to be announced later.

A uniform method of teaching will prevail with emphasis on explanation, demonstration and correction in order that the beginner may quickly and easily learn the fundamentals of skiing.

Free instruction will be given for children on Thursdays with emphasis on racing instruction for the advanced students.

Members of the staff plan to show ski movies at the various lodges in the area throughout the season for the benefit of the guests as well as those interested in ski schooling.

Blackwood Creek Strikes Again at Kaiser's

TAHOE CITY— Three inches of water were standing on the floors of the main building of the Henry Kaiser estate in Tahoe Pines Monday. The entire nine acres adjacent to Blackwood Creek was covered and damage was estimated at around $1,000 by J. Otis Hursey, caretaker.

Crews of men were reported moving furniture and equipment from the house. The rampaging creek had flooded the premises but stone cottage on the estate were not in danger. Once before Blackwood Creek flooded the Kaiser estate some years past and dynamite had to be used to blast a new channel for the destructive waters to the lake.

Big Chief Camp buildings were on the verge of collapse due to raging river waters. Water from Pole Creek, a few hundred yards south of the resort, flooded the highway and surrounding territory, adding to the current of the river. A large crew was assembled at Tahoe Inn to aid in removing furniture and equipment in the main resort building and cabins.

Columbia, in Tuolumne County, once missed becoming the state capital of California by only two votes.

Lake Tahoe Ski Club Plans Dance on December 2

TAHOE CITY— December 2nd has been set as the date for the Lake Tahoe Ski Club's big dance in the local community hall. Miss Ditty Bolton has been selected as chairman of the affair.

At the club's Friday night meeting, Max Porter was elected corresponding secretary to succeed Mrs. Jake Stuart and Terry Tollefson was chosen second vice president to fill a vacancy created when Jake Stuart resigned as president. The Stuarts quit their club posts as they are to move to Milford.

The motion was passed to give 10 per cent of the club's gross receipts to the promotion of the junior skiing program, this year under the direction of Kay Starratt.

The Stuarts were given an impromtu party following the ski meeting at which a beautiful floor lamp was presented as an appreciation present and two large cakes, baked by Mrs. Jean Henry, and beautifully decorated and marked with "Thanks to the Stuarts, 1950" and "Lake Tahoe Ski Club" were enjoyed with coffee and cold drinks. Dancing music was provided by Mrs. Record on the accordian, Bill Jenkinson on the bass fiddle and Vic Ferris on the clarinet.

A large attendance enjoyed the festive evening. A directors' meeting was held at the close of the regular meeting. There will be no meeting on Friday night.

SWANEE'S TAHOE LETTER

Tahoe City, Nov. 20th

Dear Tahoeites:

News from Tahoe this week is much the same as from the rest of saturated California. Water! Water! Water!

All creeks of the lake area are overflowing their banks and flooding the highways. In many places such as Madden and Ward Creeks, rocks and logs and debris strewed across the roadway make motoring extremely dangerous, especially at night. Big Chief Camp took the worst beating, with the bridge there going out around 5:30 p.m. Saturday, at which time cabins at the resort were also surrounded by the rushing Truckee River. C. A. Tollefson summoned a crew hurriedly shortly before this to move to higher ground several hundred choice Christmas trees which were stacked and ready for market. Within a few moments after their removal a foot and a half of water covered the ground.

Summer homes along the river were reported surrounded by the rushing current, in some places the water covering porches and entering the locked places. Many houses are springing leaks in the roofs and basements and yards are inundated. In some areas, cesspools are flooding and across the Tahoe City golf links and in many other districts, young rivers of water hurry by. Up to Monday morning a total of 10¼ inches of rain has fallen and the storm continues. The lake, according to Arthur Frodenberg, Tahoe gate tender, has risen since the storm began on November 13 .72 of a foot. Had all this rain been snow, he believes it would have mounted to over 10 feet. All the 13½ inches of snow which had fallen since the winter began was melted in the current storm, at least in the lowlands, although much appears to remain on the mountains.

The greatest distaster which the current storm has brought was the complete destruction of "Agea", lakeshore home of Miss Alice Griffith, who has been coming to her summer home at the north endge of town for many, many years. It was on Thursday night last that Miss Leisel Meyers and Mrs. Corrinne Otton, caretakers at hte C. W. Merrill home next door to Agea, were listening to their radio when a terrific crash, accompanied by a terrifying quake, startled them. Investigation proved it to be the falling of a huge pine, about six feet in circumference, which broke off in the storm about 50 feet from the ground and toppled across the Griffith main summer home, completely flattening the building, its contents a total loss. Miss Griffith, a prominent San Franciscan, has been accompanied for years to Tahoe for vacations by Miss Elizabeth Ash, the house having been named by combining the initials of both ladies, resulting in "AGEA". Earlier a pine tree at the top of Grove Street crashed across the road and tore out all the power lines, disrupting service for about an hour.

Have been taking care of the two Bechdolt children, Jimmie and Julianne, while their parents, the Bill Bechdolts, and the Jay Shontzes have been down in the Sacramento area pheasant hunting. For two days now they have been unable to get back to Tahoe due to the road conditions and around noon today they phoned to say they had made it as far as Nyack Lodge where they were awaiting word from the highway department and would proceed as soon as Highway 40 was reopened. They reported having hao wonderful success hunting but the weather must have take. much of the joy out of the trip.

Just talked on the phone with Alex Cushing of Squaw Valley, who reported that about 60 persons, including 35 guests, were stranded at the resort. The two bridges across the flooded Squaw Creek are both out. At the present there is no shortage of food or supplies. The only shortage is in cigarettes. Cushing reports the time is passing pleasantly with various card games and limited refreshments the order of the day. So far, no sewage troubles have arisen. The current storm has caused the resort to advance its official opening date to December 8.

Dick and Maizie Carnell and two sons have moved from the Carnell cottage near Lake Inn to the former Tim Butler home in Bittencourt Tract, now owned by Mrs. Rose Boyiarides. Maizie on Monday was reported seriously ill in bed with flu. Hope she's soon okay. Their former home on the highway will be occupied for the winter by Mrs. Jimmie Martin and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Eliza Martin. Jimmie goes to Colusa for an extended job this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Yeakel, who formerly rented the Butler place, are reported moved to a town in western Placer County for the winter. Johnny Krueger of Beverly Hills spent the weekend at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carnell.

Mrs. Marie Henry, member of the Placer County board of health, will have to forego attending the regular board meeting in Auburn tonight, as weather conditions make travel impossible. This is one of the rare times she has not been present during her long term of service. Am sorry to report her hubby, Joe, is very much indisposed these days. He has been confined to his bed for some time now. Gets up for only a brief time each day to walk a bit in an effort to keep the circulation up to par. Here's wishing you a speedy recovery, Joe.

A meeting was held at the Tahoe City home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pomin last Thursday evening. Despite the storm which was in progress, over 30 persons attended. The meeting was called to present a round tabl. discussion between parents anu others relative to the educational methods being used in the schools and many expressed dissatisfaction during the session. Representativs from many areas of the lake were present, genuine interest and concern on the matter being voiced among the pareents. Other meetings are being planned in the future to further study the questions raised.

Ring off for the week as the wind and rain continue although not as heavy as during the past few days. School is out today and it may remain closed until the storm abates. The highway is considered unsafe for the operation of school buses. So until fairer weather arrives, it's vacation. Best wishes and a Happy Thanksgiving, one and all, as ever, Swanee.

Mrs. Jody Maher of Meeks Bay recently left Reno and is now located in balmy Phoenix, Arizona, until early in 1951.

Telephone service is still a bargain...for since 1940, rates have gone up much less than the cost of living.

GOOD FRIEND OF THE FAMILY BUDGET

The telephone actually takes less of it than in 1940

1. Seems like the prices of most things you buy have about doubled, in the last ten years. Among the standout exceptions is your telephone service. There have been rate increases, of course, to help meet increased costs of furnishing service...higher wages, higher prices for materials, higher costs generally. But telephone rates have gone up far less than most other things. And that's only part of the story.

2. Telephone installers are making your service a better all-around bargain, too. When you buy a pound of something, you still get sixteen ounces. although the price may have doubled. Twelve items still make a dozen. But not so with telephone service. Your telephone dollars buy, on the average, twice as many available connections as ten years ago. for we've more than doubled the system in that time.

3. Today you can call more of the people you want to call.. many more people can call you. And the calls you get are often more important than the calls you make. Yet average telephone rates have gone up less than half as much as the cost of living generally. They're up much less than our costs of providing service. It all comes down to this: Today telephone service can be purchased for fewer hours of work than in 1940. Your telephone is a mighty good friend of the family budget.

REDDING— Another special venire of 40 persons was ordered for the resumption Monday of the murder trial of Robert Sturm, 19, and James McKay, 18, after Judge Benjamin C. Jones dismissed the special venire of 26 which appeared Saturday in an effort to select two alternate jurors for the trial jury.

The defendants were captured in Truckee by State Patrolmen William Gautsche and George Schrom and the former is a chief witness in the case.

Mohan was a member of the Eagles, Moose, Shrine and Masonic lodges. He is survived by his wife, a sister and a half-brother.

Itinerant Merchants Law to be Enforced

Strict enforcement of the Itinerant Merchants Act by the state public utilities commission is underway throughout the state, R. E. Mittelstaedt, president of the commission, reported today.

Mittelstaedt said the commission's field division has groups of men working throughout the state to bring about enforcement of the act which provides that every itinerant merchant must be licensed.

The act, he said, defines an itinerant merchant as one who buys for the purpose of sale or offers to buy for the purpose of sale, "at wholesale or retail, any farm product, and who transports such products upon a public highway by motor vehicle to any county in California, other than the county in which the products are purchased, for the purpose of selling such products."

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

BEFORE BLAKE'S COMMAND TO THROW TARZAN INTO THE WATER COULD BE CARRIED OUT, A HORDE OF ANIMALS ATTACKED.

SICK WITH TERROR, BLAKE FIRED AT THE NEAREST BEAST— A HUGE YELLOW APE.

IN THE CONFUSION, LUSHA CUT TARZAN'S BONDS AND HANDED HIM THE KNIFE. SUDDENLY SHE GASPED--"MY FATHER!"

TARZAN SAW NUMA, THE LION, ATTACKING AN OLD MAN. WITH A SAVAGE GROWL, HE LEAPED TO THE RESCUE.

A DOZEN TIMES TARZAN'S SHARP BLADE FOUND ITS MARK

-1029-

BOB Kuhn 11/26

BLAKE'S BULLETS SCATTERED THE REST OF THE ANIMALS, BUT THE GREAT YELLOW MANGANI SEIZED THE DESPERATE MAN.
